LB 375
LR 21

that commitment of money and, finally, we have looked at the values. We understand that this represents a break in a hundred year history of this state in not advancing the state credit for private purposes. I think we would be remiss in our duty if we sent this issue to the voters. I, therefore, think it appropriate for us to indefinitely postpone it at this time.

PRESIDENT: The question is, shall LR 21 be indefinitely postponed? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: I guess I will just have a roll call, Mr. Speaker and if each of the members would take their seat it would be good.

PRESIDENT: Are you asking we check in first?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Yeah.

PRESIDENT: Okay, as soon as we clear the board, we will check in. There are several that are out of their seats. Please return to your seats and check in. Senator Warner, please. Senator Hefner, Senator Rogers, Senator Landis, please. Senator Smith, Senator Morehead, Senator Pirsch, Senator Lynch, Senator Haberman. Senator Haberman, Senator Goodrich. Okay, we are all here and the question is, we are going to have a roll call, shall LR 21 be indefinitely postponed? Let's hold it down so the Clerk can hear your response. It is a little difficult. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See pages 2255-56 of the Legislative Journal.) 25 ayes, 24 nays on the indefinite postponement, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The bill is indefinitely postponed and I almost got to vote.

CLERK: Items for the record.

PRESIDENT: Items for the record, please.

CLERK: Mr. President, communication from the Governor to the Clerk. (Read. Re: LB 375. See page 2256 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, bills read earlier this afternoon on Final
